Thread: What is your most expensive collectible?

Pimping - October 20, 2026, 9:17 pm

I really cant even think of mine at the top of my head... I do probably have some things that are worth a bit of money around my house curious to hear what you guys have. I already know Deany is gonna say some type of gundam... lol

The most valuable piece in my collection is my first-edition Gengar holo.
Its spooky design and perfect shine always draw attention.

Maybe one of my old computers, I actually have an iMac G3 (Tangerine color) I'm pretty proud of, I think it worth like 200$

I am collecting die-cast cars. Even though it is not most expensive, it still took a chunk of amount.
