Why do you deserve the upgrade or 15 USD?:I have helped out MANY members on here, in many ways, like in hascking operations, and giving free accounts, etc. I have also not won a money contest before. My rep may be slightly lower than others because unlike them, I help all members, not just those who give me rep. I would use the money to upgrade a deserving member I like, most likely. Also, I am a VERY HQP, and you can check my rep if you do not believe me. Thank you for your time.'

Also, every day I am active, and am trusted.

Why do you deserve the upgrade or 15 USD?:

Well, I think that I deserve the Ub3r upgrade because I'm starting to contribute alot to the community. In the past week I've coded a stealer and a keylogger. Which they were fully FUD and fully WORKING. Yesterday, I've stayed up all night for about 6 hours coding a logger which had keylogger, stealer, antis and a downloader built in. Alot of the keyloggers like the one I coded are sold here, guess what? Mine is free. I did it all just to contribute to the community.

I've also helped alot of members with my releases for the past week.

I won't dissappoint you, I'll keep on releasing stuff and contributing alot more to the community.

Thanks for reading this long, long, loong "Why I think I deserve Ub3r".

Why do you deserve the upgrade or 15 USD?:

Over my time at HF, over half a year. I have strived to be a kind and helpful member. I tried to help new members as well as old ones in the best way I can. I prided myself on politeness and respect. I spent a month in the beginner hacking section helping newbies. And finnally, I've written countless tutorials to help contribute to HF in the best way I can. I wish to continue my career at HF from writing even more guides and simply providing 1 on 1 help with others for years to come.

My Guides:

I also follow a strict set of rules:

- Always be kind
- Never Flame
- Be Active
- Contribute positively

There many members on HF that would probably wish to win this contest badly, and I understand that. Therefore I bid every contestant good luck and I humbly place my entry here.

The $15 would help me to start selling items on eBay which I could desperately use the money for. If need be, I could repay the $15 once I have made money selling items such as DVDs, Games, CDs and clothes.

Thanks.

Because I'm a simple but interested user in the upgrade l33t, I don't have access to the VIP fora. And Leets do have access, Ubers too...
