Sent you a invite on msn.

Edit:

OP was very rude in talking and sent me to this site (<http://adukaj.110mb.com/projectnexus/>)

I asked to upload on [censored] or imageshack or something to make it easier for everyone to view and he just snapped at me.

I asked to upload on [censored] or imageshack or something to make it easier for everyone to view and he just snapped at me. Its my personal site, I use it alot, and I uploaded all my gfx there, I'm not uploading [censored] because I deleted my gfx off comp, and also because you have to do some verification code after every upload (which gets annoying), why does it matter where I upload it?
