Thread: Help me? Upload Marathon!

Warbiest - September 14, 2010, 4:42 am

Some may know that I got a new hard drive because my old one got fucked (stupid cheap Chinese things). That means, I lost all my saved stuff my renders, stocks, backgrounds and C4D's all gone.

So I want to ask you guys to help me get some new fresh stuff. Anything GFX related will work.

Please do not post huge packs with a million different things, I'd rather have one good C4D then a hundred bad ones.

So let's start the uploading marathon...Thingy!
