The link he supplied was this: <https://hackforums.net/private.php?action=send&uid=476833>

I was like FUCK NO and copied the username and searched away.

Thank you for being alert and good job for not falling for it.

Also @other users, it may not have been a link to his profile it could have been a link like this Yo iiM PaRaDoX So you never know.

@OP you should PM this thread to a staff member so it gets handled ASAP as some newer users may be easily tricked by this.

Sincerely,
~PaRaDoX

He used charmap to find a similar "o" since it isn't in the HF database with that "o" the username isn't taken.
