Another thing I will be doing soon, is providing DDL's to my own collections of Anime images and music for other fans to enjoy.

a chance Omni will consider to make animeFAN! an actual group.

jthomasjba accepted.

Scary, denied. Your application was perfect. Just hardly any activity within anime adventures.

Sleep. - October 15, 2010, 8:41 am

I don't post there due to activity with a certian member shall we say.

Taiga - October 15, 2010, 9:35 am

Just post there, and ignore them is all. You're a cool guy and all, but 0 activity in the anime section.

Happeh - October 15, 2010, 12:35 pm

(Oct 14, 2010 12:14 PM)Scary Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Well I have seen a page of applications and no accepting or declining and it's been 2 days.

Yeah, just ignore them. Like I say your application was great; and if I could I'd accept you on just that but we are an anime group. And we have made Anime Adventures our home.

Taiga - October 15, 2010, 3:09 pm

The goal of the group is to generate more active members for the anime adventures section. By rejecting people who want to join, and if they want to join back, they'll decide to be more active in the anime section. Simple. :D

I was talking to Happeh earlier about animeFAN!, and we will be doing monthly contests pretty soon for anime dvds. Since there is an FYE like 30 seconds from my apartment, they have a decent anime library over there so I can pick up some dvds and have a raffle, or a contest or whatever. More details will be posted here, and in the Anime Adventures section.

? Age: 16

? Country & State: Scotland

? Favorite Anime(s): This is a hard one. I don't have an overall favorite anime. There are a few that I consider to be amazing anime and would love to see sequels of. I'm going to have to pick two here, for action it's going to be "Ghost in the Shell" as it's an overall outstanding anime. For romance, I'm going with a shoujo anime, "Nana". I absolutely loved this to the point where I had to go read the manga afterwards to see what happened after the anime stopped. Which is something I don't do very often, if ever at all since I already know the basics of the story. lol

? Favorite Manga(s): Ichigo 100% and Bakuman (I don't read much manga as you can see)

? Favorite Anime Movie(s): 5cm per second.

? How can you help/contribute to animeFAN!? I'm an active poster and I love discussing anime, I regularly post in AA and I have a good knowledge of anime so I can help reccomend anime when people need help finding something to watch.

? A little bit about yourself: I'm a huge anime fan and work on several anime sites including ZOMGanime.com (Forum Mod and Anime Staff, well supposed to be Anime Staff but the company that owns ZA hasn't given any of the staff the power to fix anime since the update) and AnimeDreaming.tv (Forum admin). I also own my own anime forum that's branching out into the streaming site side of things soon. lol

A little bit about yourself: Actually at first I'm not too interested in anime, it's not like I hate it or something like that. Then, I got hospitalized for some months, without nothing to do. And then I borrowed my sister's laptop for playing some games, after get bored, I browse through the HD and I found tons of anime and Visual Novels. Since I am extremely bored to death, so I decided to watch some of them, and one by one, I watched every one of them, and then I realized I've become anime addict (And also Visual Novel addict)

How can you help/contribute to animeFAN!?

You'll see I don't have too many posts in HF anime section, I just become anime addict recently, so don't expect I've already made a thousands posts in there. But don't worry, I'll be more active these days. But if "You must have more posts in the Anime Adventures section." requirement is an obligatory, then I don't mind if you reject me. I'll be glad to re-apply in two weeks.

Well, actually im not going to concentrate my contribution in anime since there are a lot of people here that be able to do this job (well, enough said), and as you can see, VN has a strong relationships with Anime, there are so many anime out there released based on their VN, as a fan of VN I was kinda disappointed because there are currently not much people discussing this Visual Novel thingy in HF Anime Section besides anime. Visual novels are very-very famous in Japan, where they made up nearly 70% of the PC game titles, and it just so sad, HF Anime section didn't have Visual Novel subforums in it despite their popularity. So, I'll try my best to contribute as many as possible visual novel related stuff in HF Anime section and hope that someday Omni will create a subforum for it inside HF Anime.

Obviously if I change my username, which will stay in my username history forever, I'm not going to "back down" or become "inactive".

So I'll wait till that happens, then I may attempt again. That's all fine and dandy. We don't force the members that visit Anime Adventures to join us.

The reason AnimeFAN! was created in the first place was to bring more activity to it, not to keep people out.

And yes, we don't have our own userbar, so what?

Doesn't mean that we're lower than the other groups standards that have userbars.

In fact, we have over 80 members in this group - without having some minor thing such as a user bar.

Userbars aren't everything for groups.

The reason groups thrive is because of their goals and purposes for being created and organized, not because of a shiny little user bar below their screen name.

So just because you were denied until you become active (like about 10-20 other people, that later applied after being active and got accepted) doesn't mean you were denied all together. AF was made to give people incentive to become active. We've had all kinds' of events (Like our Secret Santa program), and contests as well.

No need to get a little upset bro, Just get active - if joining us is what you want. If not, then, that's fine too. We just hope to see the Anime section thrive. ^.^ Have a good day, stay active, and re-apply later on if you like.

Thank you for taking the time to post an application.

I'm sorry to inform you that you have been temporarily denied due to lack of posts and activity within Anime Adventures itself.

Though I'm glad to see new faces in #HFAanime, we still demand one main thing out of our members.

- Activity in Anime Adventures.

So get to posting in AA, and then re-apply after about 40 to 50 or so posts in Anime Adventures.

Thank you for applying, have a good day.

And you have overall positive rep.

I'm probably not qualified to comment on this in the manner that I want to (Since I'm not a leader or anything), but if you can't make up the time, you can't make up the time.

But thank YOU for driving AnimeFAN! with the rest of us.

Happeh, we will always remember you. Sucks that school and work interfere, but hopefully you can pop in once and a while and say whats up.

Looks like there's a new spot for Leader, and I know who its going to be. Announcement shortly on AA. Thread is now updated with more members, and more news will come. AnimeFAN! is not dead at all.

Hopefully you'll find some spare time to come back 'round.

Probably is you. You've done a lot for AF even since I keep getting limited, so you did act like a leader. Not sure why you're putting yourself down.

It's not that I'm putting myself down; It's that I'm just a humble person in general.

=P

But if you want me, you're more than welcome to have me. (=

(In a totally non-homosexual, non-erotic way, of course).

Happeh - April 1, 2011, 10:40 am

I won't be missed that bad. SewDough was always a better leader. I only mentioned the idea of a group and you guys took it way out of what I expected.

I rarely post in HF as much, especially in AA. And with End of Exams coming in a few weeks and work, I cant keep up. And I have to work on Black Knights too. Shits too much.

Keep me down as a member of the group though.

I wouldn't go as far as to say annoying, but then again, I've been told that I have the patience of a saint.

Sarcastic as fuck, yes.

But I don't mind a bit of sarcasm every now and then.

I guess the Lakers will lose, cause they've been winning big the whole game, lol.

Also, the Hornets' frontline cannot compete with Gasol, Bynum and Odom. They only have Landry, who is decent, Okafor, who is decent and Aaron Gray, a 1 shot wonder (only did good Game 1). Lakers have this game, and Lakers have the next game. Ah, the Lakers are now up by 19. Looks like the Hornets were going to win this game.. woo.

Anywho, this placeholder fag has derailed enough. Back to AF applications.

Favorite Anime(s): Bleach (without fillers), Death Note, D. Gray Man, Yu Yu Hakusho, Claymore, Code Geass, Full Metal Alchemist, Soul Eater, Dragonball Z, and many more....

Favorite Manga(s): Personally, I never liked manga because I found reading to be a bit boring (I guess watching the anime first didn't help) and my parents would get mad at me reading manga so I never really read manga except a couple Bleach and Naruto ones.

Favorite Anime Movie(s): All the Bleach movies, I really love them all. A few Inuyasha ones too :P

How can you help/contribute: I feel that I've spent too many years watching anime to keep all my anime knowledge to myself so I would LOVE to get into conversations about anime I've watched because where I live, all people care about is basketball and pot. I feel this would be the easiest task I could ever do.

A little about yourself: Me, personally, I like an anime when it is a little sadistic or dark such as Death Note, Claymore, and D. Gray Man. I also like anime where the ideology of the anime's plot works and makes sense like with Death Note. A little fetish with me is when an anime doesn't take place in Japan or doesn't the WHOLE anime. It shows that the Japanese think other places are good, except their home country. I despise STUPID characters and sometimes those characters can kill an entire anime for me.

I like to create controversial topics about popular or old animes which people have strong opinions on, and allow people to learn or have a chance to share their opinion about the manga or anime off topic, making the experience of the anime or manga more enjoyable for everyone, because we understand the characters or plotline better and become more passionate about it.

A little bit about yourself:

I regularly have heated arguments with my friends over characters in Bleach or Naruto, recently it was about Danzo and how his power was really undermined and how overrated his summon Baku was by Madara. Or how the hell is Toshiro from Bleach still a child when Gin was a child but he grew up. Or how Ichigo doesn't have a bonus hollow power because his hollow powers are the powers of his zapakto.

It's Shugo from .Hack//Legend of the Twilight Bracelet. He might be from Quantum, but it hasn't said anything about it on Anime-Planet.

You're probably about the 800th person to ask this, not just in thread, but PM, and IRC.

Basically, Omniscient wants $2000 for a userbar (which is nuts, 'cause I know that all of these new usergroups, aside from Red Lions haven't done that.) It's basically his way of saying it'll never happen, and regardless of how much I like animeFAN!, and how much money I make, I'm still not spending $2000.00 USD on a userbar.

That's ridiculous.

We have more members that some of the official groups as well.

Thanks for your post, as well as your enthusiasm.

I would accept you, if our screening process was based on Applications alone... however... You literally have 0 posts in Anime Adventures.

I'm going to have to deny you, but if you truly want to join the AnimeFAN! family, hop on over to Anime Adventures, and start posting.

SewDough - October 28, 2011, 6:45 pm herpderp.

This is a shameless bump to get the leaders attention that we have waiting applicants.

Happeh - October 30, 2011, 5:18 am

After careful consideration and some clear guidance, I've decided to close this thread and start a new one. The memberlist will completely be wiped and everyone will need to apply again. Of course if you was a past member; you will be more than likely accepted.

Sewdough has been "demoted" right now, due to his inactivity and as soon as he starts posting again he can become a leader again.

I've PM'd Taiga 3 times now for him to close this thread and to start anew with me, but to no avail. Therefore he's been demoted too. I left a good month and a half waiting for a reply, but he's left me with no choice.

If everyone can wait for me to get the thread running again, AnimeFAN will be back and be better than ever.

Thanks. ^^

I am now passing on the torch again. Turns out I'm busier than I thought and cant handle being a leader, or even staying only as much as I did.

Tasemu is now the only leader. I'm sure he'll do a a great job, as one of my best-buddies and closest friend, I have no doubts.
