What did everyone think about this anime?

I finished the whole series all today and my thoughts on it are in the first few episodes I didn't know where the story was going, since it was just Rin trying to flirt with her teacher the whole time. But, as the story went on, Rin's father started to get more and more involved and eventually the story started to get interesting. Although the ending was kind of a disappointment in my opinion, seeing as I wanted Aoki and Houin to get together AT LEAST once but I guess we won't see that happening (tears).

In all, I'd rate this anime a 7/10.

Now, I have to download the second season of this show, the side OVA and by January 2011 there's is going to be a 3rd season based on a couple of OVAs.

Any thoughts? Post them here! <3

I thought it was pretty neat, not watching all episodes but i specifically remember an 'inderict kiss' from a juice box.

in any case its good for a loli fan such as myself ;-p

I'd rate 8/10.

I honestly enjoyed this story. Maybe to much. :3

I can't download anything until Verizon installs good internet here, so I can't watch season 2 or the OVA, I can't even stream it either.

I couldn't find a decent download for the series.. and every streaming mirror was deleted. So, unfortunately, I haven't been able to watch it. =[
