Thread: [\[Release\]URLshortener\[VB.NET\]](#)

codepoet - October 25, 2010, 2:55 pm

here is a small application i worked on today

What dose it do?

Code This application takes the long link you want to make short and creates an adf.ly link

Example:

Code <http://www.coderzforum.net> becomes <http://adf.ly/9jVn>

Virus Scans:

VirusTotal

NoVirusThanks

Download Link: URLshortener.rar

if you want to help me out then download the program from here: SUPPORT ME

i hope you like it. please comment leave a comment.

sharecash links belong in the referrals section.

Which site does it use? ..

xxrangexx - October 25, 2010, 3:08 pm

You can get url shortners online for free, why on earth would people go through the trouble of doing loads of survey crap?

Just put direct link in your post, NO ONE will download it via sharecash.

its not spam

2 links one is direct link the other is $shareCash is you want to support me.

ident - October 25, 2010, 3:14 pm

support for what though? what does this offer more then going to tinyurl?

codepoet - October 25, 2010, 3:19 pm

if you download the program from $sharecash you will support me, i get money.

if you download from direct link you get the program i get no money

ident - October 25, 2010, 3:23 pm

Yes, i can work that out. My point is if you was trying to sell this product to me. What does it offer that you can justify me giving you my money.

Make sense?

H3x0S - October 25, 2010, 3:23 pm

...or just:

Open "www.bit.ly [WARNING: potentially infected]" and press "Shorten".

codepoet - October 25, 2010, 3:34 pm

why cant people just see that someone is trying to learn and just encourage them to do an even better job.

Sage Mode - October 25, 2010, 3:49 pm

This program looks like it could be somewhat useful, but what exactly do you mean by "Link Shortener"? What will it do to make the link shorter? Will the link be disguised? A brief description would help.

I'm all for encouraging. I just don't see the need to ask for £££ im not asking for money is you click the link that says support me you can see that it takes you to a website where you do a surveys to download the program i created and the website owner pays me money for having you do a survey.

there you go sir it has been updated

Sage Mode - October 25, 2010, 4:04 pm

So technically it takes a link and generates your adf.ly link? Correct me if I am wrong. If that is the case, this thread definitely belongs in the referrals forum.

codepoet - October 25, 2010, 4:04 pm

its ok man we all make mistakes. thats how we learn.

FamousMassacre - October 25, 2010, 4:14 pm

I lol'd, I made this a couple months ago except mine exploited adfly for money. It still works and always pays out.

codepoet - October 25, 2010, 4:22 pm

same here buddy i made a proxy url visiter and used the element id to click the skip button.

as long as i have fresh and working proxy list it work like a charm.

i might release that here.
