So you posted this in the 360 section because?

Let people deal at their own risks.

averageuser - October 26, 2010, 5:20 pm

Why the fuck would you buy dox in the first place?

TheBlackHat - October 26, 2010, 5:21 pm

Lol buy accounts not doxes

Because people on hackforums buy kiddie shit.

AKA they buy anything your selling.

iDuL - October 26, 2010, 5:28 pm

I think people on HF are smart enough to DOX accounts themselves.

Cognitive Decline - October 26, 2010, 5:29 pm

If somebody is buying a dox, they know the risks/benefits of it.

My friend reset an account with a $5 dox, he got console banned.

Steric - October 26, 2010, 5:34 pm

This is something I would expect to see posted on TTG. Not on Hackforums.

I am officially selling my own feces.

Don't trash Dean and this shouldn't be posted in this section.

Epic Smiley™ - October 26, 2010, 6:06 pm

This is for the marketplace discussions section happy troll ?

KaNe - October 26, 2010, 6:07 pm

It's way worth it for the dox. Finish resetting the account yourself, it's not hard, + if the orig owner did get it back, it would be the same as if someone else got it and sold the account.

No its not. Anyone can make up a dox. Then sell it, then say "ITS NOT MY FAULT YOU FAIL AT RESETTING"

If it is incorrect they can show proof it doesn't work.

Explain. I can give someone a real dox to a gamertag, but change a few digits around here and there. Are you going to call and say, HEY IS MAI INFO CORRECT OR NAW?

That's why people if buying, should only buy from trusted sources. :)

It's a risk you're going to have to take, so make it with the right person.

The Spirit - October 27, 2010, 9:36 am

I always thought it was against the rules to sell a dox on hackforums as it's someones personal information..
