Looks decent, that virus scan looks a little odd though, doesn't say the file name; it could be anything. Thanks though.

lilacscripts - October 28, 2010, 10:41 am

Thanks for this mate, I tried on my msn and it does work :)

The point of a msn freezer is so the login email u "freeze" cant login :D

-mothered- - October 28, 2010, 1:26 pm

Well, I've hit the download and the file seems clean. I shall test It's functionality thereon after.
Not too bad of a contribution.

IPhiLG - October 28, 2010, 1:33 pm

I totally understand every single word you say ;)

X-Shadow - October 28, 2010, 2:39 pm

So when I type someones E-Mail address in and press freeze and it says frozen, so when i close the program does it unfreeze then?

IPhiLG - October 29, 2010, 3:11 am
