Robie - October 30, 2010, 1:16 pm

Meh, I can last without it for a few.

Moralitas - October 30, 2010, 1:16 pm

We should have a Halloween game like the one we had in easter, this time hide candies instead. I believe Valiant ran it last time, but it sure was fun. Also, don't worry about the logo it will be fixed soon, no need to be worry about it.

Happy Halloween everyone! You're never never too old for trick or treating, never, and who doesn't like free candies?

Airex - October 30, 2010, 1:16 pm

Very simple Omni just made an simple but cool halloween banner, he'd just changed the blackhat man into a fucking evil. Maybe Omni were just drunk again.

Industry - October 30, 2010, 1:16 pm
