carl - July 30, 2011, 12:35 am

This is what I use, I have gotten over 1000 subs in 1 week over 5000 views on videos, you can add up to 5 videos for free and I have gotten over 1000 likes for each video also. They just came out with a comments option a couple of days ago and I've been getting about 4 comments per day. It's all free and the best part is, it's automated so you don't have to sit there and click thru all of the videos and get points. I use a throw away youtube account for the surfing because of course it automatically likes and subs pages, but for my 5 videos i use my real youtube so it gets all the subs, favs, likes and comments. It's really easy go here
