It's common sense when you chargeback and expect a refund. You are a honest retard.

Always Sad - November 8, 2010, 5:35 pm

LOL, you told me to make this scam report.

Also, i canceled the dispute already.

Crappie - November 8, 2010, 5:37 pm

You shouldn't never charged back :/

Only people with no patience do that.

Maturity and respect unleash confusion and questions.

Thats cool you canceled it if you even did, yeah I told you to make it because you threatened me and I wanted to show you up.

Paypal held the funds because you marked it as a unauthorized payment and they are going to investigate it because you pretty much told them that it wasn't you that sent the money. So everyday if you want me to I can keep posting pictures with a notepad saying the date time and even include a PM each day to prove it's still held. I'll refund when it's done being held unless it goes straight back to you. You are stupid to dispute in the first place, use your head you PM'ed me at like 150AM and expected a response.

Edit: also, I didn't respond back till like 3PM because I didn't get home till then, hint the 15 aka in school?

NaDe - November 8, 2010, 5:39 pm

Remove the payment picture and mark out Dream's last name.

Dr?am - November 8, 2010, 5:59 pm

Dream, you have the right to not refund him since he disputed saying it wasn't authorized. Meaning it was a stolen account Wink Wink

!Currency! - November 9, 2010, 6:32 am

Well whatever the problem is, it doesn't look good for either of you to be having these posts.. and i know it's frustrating and stuff, but it's best to keep cool and not call people "retards" etc.. as it doesn't look professional and could stop future service sales. You are both very established HF users, and should know better.

I have spent a lot of money on HF products and not always got what i expected, but you learn from these mistakes, and hopefully you don't deal in the same way next time.

From what i have read it looks like a misunderstanding, and could have been dealt with a lot better, but who knows the facts??? Only these 2.. and it's a shame HF members have to spend with caution, and deal with the many scammers (not including these mentioned in this thread) but that's life!!!!

Always Sad - November 9, 2010, 7:32 am

2nd day from canceling the dispute. Still no refund

Hero of War - November 9, 2010, 7:52 am

Unauthorized claim = no one gets the money 99% of the time. You won't get the money back, kiddo.

Always Sad - November 9, 2010, 7:53 am

This scammer....Look its waiting for his responce. He can refund it.

Vanity - November 9, 2010, 8:04 am

You knew about the 24 hour waiting period and agreed to it.

You sent him the money and during the waiting period felt like your money back.

You disputed it as an unauthorized transaction, hence asking Paypal to investigate.

To avoid having the claimed "stolen" funds to be spent by the alleged 3rd party, Paypal puts the funds on HOLD on his account.

I don't know if you've been disputed before, looks like you haven't, when you get disputed, the funds are DEDUCTED from your account, and your account can be totaled negative for this.

It will remain on HOLD as long as Paypal is investigating the issue which will last 1-2 weeks.

Although you cancelled the dispute, your initial claim sits at the very end of the queue of thousands of kids disputing transactions for their own benefit.

Wait your turn in the queue for Paypal staff to read "The dispute has been cancelled." whereby they'll release the funds, and you'll get your exchange from Dream.

It's not Dream's fault here but your slight insecurity. Just wait for the funds to be released. Since you haven't actually credited any money to his account.

Always Sad - November 9, 2010, 8:10 am

Sithis - November 9, 2010, 8:30 am

Dream is obvious scammer. I mean look at him. Ub3r high rep etc. And he is selling two things that are 600+ for less(iPhone 4 for 150). It's common sense.

You can't assume hes a scammer. Yes there something wrong here but you cant say hes a scammer just yet. He can't refund because the payment is on hold. He gave proof of it to. The iPhone he got was free. He s.e it. For who cares what price he sells it for.
