Thread: Crypter not working

endem - November 19, 2010, 8:34 am

I have download alot of FUD crypter and everytime I try to open one it gives me en error why? and how do I fix that?

ariton - November 19, 2010, 8:37 am

What is the crypter's name?

Obs3rv3r - November 19, 2010, 8:41 am

Do you have net Framework installed? Most crypters here are coded in net.

yes I have .net installed. Also it says that a file is missing but I have stub and the crypter...

Are you opening it in a .RAR? If so, extract the files to your desktop.

Re-download the crypter and try again.

Hello endem,

I will assist you to the best of my ability to solve your problem or try to help you.

Please be more specific as to the exact error message.

It sounds like it is either a .OCX, DLL, or .Net dependency problem. (you are missing one of them)
Use the below form to contact me.

Feel free to Private Message if I: Did not fully assist you or my post was unclear

Misunderstood what you needed help with

Can help with anything else

Hello again endem,
I will assist you to the best of my ability to solve your problem or try to help you.

I was correct, great.

Simply Google the missing OCX file and then use one of the following tutorials to register it:

<http://support.microsoft.com/kb/146219>

<http://word.mvps.org/faqs/customization/registerdll.htm>
