Thread: A Big Thanks to you Jesse

Industry - November 24, 2010, 3:10 pm

I would personally like to Thank you Jesse a.k.a Omniscient. Throughout my time here on <https://hackforums.net/> I have made a lot of friends and have learned a lot of different things that I would not have if it weren't for you. You have kept these forums running smooth and efficiently despite all of the people trying to bring you down.

You have also helped me along with a very large majority of the community make good money selling products and services in one of the biggest and best online marketplaces on the net. The money that I was earning through HF granted me to live a proper life when I was out a job and for that I am most grateful.

I have been a member of HF since April 1st of 2010 and on Supportforums since June 18th, 2010 and I plan on sticking around for a very long time to come. I also plan to upkeep with my periodic donations and PM's requesting various awards lol.

So to sum all of this up, On behalf of me and all of your community's and Forums thank you so much. We appreciate all you have done for us.

Omniscient you truly are the best!

Regards - Industrialized™

I think I can speak for this man who you describe as omniscient, Jesse, when I say "I appreciate your feedback, your welcome, I'm going to close this now because it really serves no purpose".

It is feedback on this site. How it serves no purpose I would like to know.

Somebody's going for another award.

St?alth - November 24, 2010, 3:14 pm

Indeed I agree. I've learnt so much here already, and I've only been here for a short period of time. I'm only 14 years old and the things I've learnt to do would probably be hard for anyone I know personally to believe. None of this would of been possible without this community, so I guess you're spot on there mate.

No I am actually saying thanks. If I wanted an award I would ask for one. I'm not a pussy

No. People can post feedback. Guess what? That's what part of this section is for.

Why report my posts. A picture is worth 1000 words therefore high quality. Also within size restrictions, therefore overall a very nice post.

Lol I seen that and just so you know it wasn't me. It actually is a good picture. But since I just smoked I am lost as to what it means.

Woah woah woah, you just PM him asking for awards and get them? Obviously with proof of course... Holy shit, I hope he enjoys my next PM.

I never said I PM him to ask for awards. I said if I wanted one that is what I would do. I am not suggesting you do it.

Thanks but these type of threads aren't really very important.
