I have been waiting for this for ages and now that it is so close I am very worried, but I guess we are all going to die soon. What must happen, must happen.

I am reading everything about this!

Zeon - November 28, 2010, 3:27 am

""If the U.S. brings its carrier to the West Sea of Korea at last, no one can predict the ensuing consequences," said KCNA, referring to the aircraft carrier USS George Washington, which is set to join South Korea's forces near the coasts of China and North Korea for the four-day military drill scheduled to start Sunday." Let's see if they live up to their word.

Xenochrist - November 28, 2010, 6:49 am

North Korea spends all their money on their military. Way more than even SK spends. Now u tell me whose missiles will fall apart.

Kenneth - November 28, 2010, 6:56 am

Wow this is actually happening.
Never thought it would get this far.

Halo 4 - November 28, 2010, 6:56 am kool+kake - November 28, 2010, 9:55 am

I wake up and to find nothing happened. I am disappoint, North Korea.

StaTiX - November 28, 2010, 10:04 am

hmm

i dont think that NK will start to fire at SK since there is a fully operational and combat ready nuclear aircraft carier near them...

Cowsoeat - November 28, 2010, 10:09 am

You never know what will happen. If NK was smart, they would probably wait until they have the element of surprise. Right now they have everyone standing on their toes; we are preparing for it (in a way).

I leave in the Philippines, waayyyy too close. It's just a couple of hours from South Korea. If China joins the conflict, Japan wont just sit around doing nothing. If my country gets sucked in, what will we do? throw sticks at them? sheesh...

N3w_2_H@Ck1n™ - November 30, 2010, 4:21 am

I don't see how one nation, which has no official allies, is going to start a world war. It'll just get itself pwned.

No, China is a trading partner of theirs, but that doesn't make them allies and China isn't going to take NK's side if it means vusing the US lol.

Wish granted, but you were nuked and you did not die in the initial blast. You live a long life afterwards; however, you get sick, get cancer, and get stabbed by a rouge enemy of war. ?

Shades Jr. - November 30, 2010, 9:10 pm

NK will get raped by the US and the SK.

The russians on the other hand....

This could end in a world war... I mean isn't this how World War 1 started?

could someone explain the whole conflict to me about this north and south korea stuff.

Epizen - December 9, 2010, 12:23 am

It's going to be a lot more fun in the next 10 years. If things get bad at least americans have a country full of gun toting idiots to randomly shoot invaders. Britain has nothing to fight off invaders with.

Codeine - December 9, 2010, 9:34 pm

Its NK playing chicken trying to get SK to make a bigger attack so NK can declare war.

xPerfect - December 10, 2010, 7:33 am

Yep, because of the lies on wikipedia.

And north korea is helping iran. and Russia is helping iran to.

They are one team.

So i guess what they did is good.

One more bullshit and there it goes.

And Russia, North-Korea and iran can take over the world if they want...
