People brag about rep because they know that they will get more from it

Since when is 40 a benchmark. But, non the less, congratulations.

Shippage - December 4, 2010, 3:28 pm

Really? Everyone is repping you just because you made a LQ thread about rep? Bah. 40 is like nothing btw.

40 was one of my goals so it doesn't really matter if it's nothing to you. Why don't you go complain in one of the other 10 threads about rep.
