ANIME REQUESTS

Hello everyone.

First, I'd like to thank you all for taking your time to read this.

In this thread, I will explain to all of you how you should make a proper recommendation thread.

But, some people seem to forget that there are still some steps that have to be completed before you actually make a thread like that.

These steps are simple but easily forgotten.

STEP 1:

Ofcourse, How could you forget, the good old SEARCH button..

Go ahead, don't be afraid.. You'll get tons of results.

Now for the second step, you won't even have to go through the hell of searching and browsing through different sections.

In fact, the SECOND STEP is right in front of your own nose!

Here, take a look:

You see that right, IMPORTANT THREADS.

Here is where you'll find all the sticky threads that have been made before..

Now, if you take a look at that last thread made by Nyx...

[img]http://img146.imageshack.us/img146/7734/nyxx.jpg[/img]

Yes, in this thread.. You'll find 8 Huge Charts along with Nyx-'s personal favourite anime.

You might want to have a look there as well.

HERE's THE LINK TO NYX-'s THREAD TO SAVE YOU GUYS SOME TIME.

Now, have you completed these steps, but do you still want to make a recommendation thread?

Then be sure to make it clear for your fellow AnimeBro's!

Making a thread like this; -

Quote:Does anyone know a cool anime that I might like?!?one!!?two?!

Won't get you anywhere!

Next time, try doing it just like this:

Quote:I just finished watching:

I personally didn't like watching... at all.

I'm looking for an anime with lots of... in it!
The animes that I've already seen and liked are:
The animes that I've already seen and hated are:

If you'll do it this way, you'll have less trolls or haters on your threads!
And that actually goes for all sections, not just anime.

Thanks again for taking your time to read this, and remember.
Think twice before making another anime recommendation thread!

Have a great day,
~Espada.

Great thread, hopefully people will actually read it. It get annoying when people don't read the stickys or use the search tool

Totally.

At first,I hoped that people would actually read it because it's kinda long.

But I'm glad that you actually did.

Thanks,

~Espada.

I will, thanks!

Good thread. I always do this before I ask for recommendation. If people actually read this then it should help with the number of recommendation threads we see.

I hope so.

There have been made almost 5 recommendation threads in 2 days time.

It drove me nuts.

Good thread, I support- But they don't even have to come here for that. If you search something along the lines of "Good ... Anime" in google, you'll get more results than a condom has std's.

Instead of all this can't you put "Read the fucking stickys"?

SewDough - December 23, 2010, 1:31 pm

That'd take the fun out of making a thread like this, wouldn't it?
