JiiPee - December 31, 2010, 4:53 pm

a big thanks to you and as we say in Finland: Hatun noston arvoinen suoritus! ?

Raain - December 31, 2010, 4:57 pm

Thanks mate, glad u like it !

§?Ld1êR - December 31, 2010, 9:24 pm

I am starting to develop feeling`s for you man! i honestly thought there was more to this type of animation than that, thanks for this Raain ill use this technique on some of my future work.

VERY GOOD TUTORIAL THANKS MATE

Superman™ - January 4, 2011, 6:21 am

Wher's the Position time watch button ? :|

PsychoSexy - January 4, 2011, 6:25 am

Is this possible to do with ImageReady CS2?

Raain - January 4, 2011, 7:15 am

Not with the method i explained.
Its CS5 (CS4 has it too)

Wormag - January 4, 2011, 12:06 pm

The convert to timeline option doesn't show-up when I click on the button.

Raain - January 4, 2011, 12:17 pm

What does it say then?
Maybe cause it's allready in the timeline mode?

Wormag - January 4, 2011, 1:29 pm

Great Signatures but i have something to ask you about Adobe Photoshop CS5 Protable

When i run it some error appears like Runtime C++ ...

Who know soulution about this problem please add my msn frostmournenez0r@hotmail.com

Thank you !

I am not giving my name out - January 23, 2011, 2:28 pm

I have a problem. My keyframes aren't working properly. Another one doesn't wont to show up -.- I tried everything.

-DeLuXe- - January 23, 2011, 2:49 pm

Good job raain. Very HQ member!

Good luck in the future

.Astro - January 23, 2011, 3:13 pm

It's getting overused :x.

But it's a nice tutorial. At least it shows that they were able to learn from it.~

Hmm, make sure that when u start your animation, u click the stopwatch and make sure u are allways on the layer u want to animate, else it won't show up the second key.

Sync™ - January 28, 2011, 11:46 pm

got stock on step 4,

ill add you on msn.. ?

thanks in advance! ?

Joseph Ducreux - January 28, 2011, 11:50 pm

holly fuck this will be useful

I hate photoshop

but I will port this to gimp

or try

Hman - January 29, 2011, 1:54 pm

How do you move your shine layer to the left and right? :S

??????™ - January 30, 2011, 1:48 am

cool mate i will try this ..

Loop - January 30, 2011, 4:33 am

(Jan 29, 2011 02:54 PM)Hman Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) How do you move your shine layer to the left and right? :S

As mentioned in the tutorial. u must have your shine layer selected, drag it outside the canvas to the left and turn on the animation (click the stopwatch). Then move the timeline navigator up about x seconds and move your shine to the other side of the canvas (so it doesnt show anymore)

.Astro - January 30, 2011, 7:41 am

Oh. I see what I did wrong LOL.

I forgot to turn the animation on.~

Raain - January 30, 2011, 8:09 am

haha lol :P

I'm sure i mentioned that in the OP :P

.Astro - January 30, 2011, 8:11 am

I guess I had overlooked it.~

Raain - January 30, 2011, 8:12 am glad to hear u got it sorted then ;)

Yosh?i - January 30, 2011, 9:30 am

I failed this, it never allowed me to click the 'position timewatch' :S

masoom55 - January 30, 2011, 5:16 pm

Can I do that in Gimp plz reply with pm

nice tut overall

Hypnosis - January 31, 2011, 3:08 am

Thanks for this post, but I wonder could you do this with a background image also?

NooBstEr - February 1, 2011, 10:49 am

I can't convert the frames to timeline, have the same problem as Rookie. :(

Edit: But I made it with frames :) It appeared is possible . :D

btw. Nice Tut :)

Icecubes - May 3, 2011, 6:47 pm

Fixed it XD. TY

[img]http://yourimg.in/m/qb9gsqv.gif[/img] How can I fix the little white around it?

+mK - May 3, 2011, 7:51 pm

You know, you CAN export this and upload it to a different program, right? >.> No need for that background.

Stenography - May 3, 2011, 11:07 pm

looks easy !

Thank you fr this awesome tutorial !

But how can i make a sparkle ?

nice tut, what version of photoshop are you using?

Nov - May 26, 2011, 1:04 pm

Good tut man. Gonna try this out now.

When I create a clipping mask, the white rect disappears...

Baconator - May 27, 2011, 3:03 pm

This is so cool. I will try this tonight, good tutorial.

TheCon - May 27, 2011, 3:59 pm

Very nice! You works are always the best Imo.

Chris TM - May 27, 2011, 4:47 pm

This was very helpful.. The way i use to make a shine effect was much more drawn out.

Learn something new every day.

Thanks ?

Stenography - June 28, 2011, 10:22 pm

AMAZING !

woah i will try it right now !

ignite2030 - June 29, 2011, 11:13 am

thanks, will try to make something cool with it.

AcroneSF - June 29, 2011, 4:19 pm

Like the past two earlier I dont have the 'Convert to Timeline' you mention in Step 4 :(
I'm using CS5

Any ideas?

This can also be done using the Frame Animation. Just use the Tween option can someone send me link to download soft ware for graphics design like coreldraw or photoshop i will be greatful

101 - July 10, 2011, 8:44 am

I made the time longer it just makes the shine go slower...

Raain - July 10, 2011, 9:05 am

have u moved it correctly to the end of the text?

101 - July 10, 2011, 9:26 am

I do not understand. Have you got a video of some sort?
