This looks legit. The only thing you may do is wait to see if you get your money back.

STUN ZEED - January 25, 2011, 3:33 pm

Plenty of proof has been provided, let's see what he has to say about this..

Mintee - January 25, 2011, 3:43 pm

Okay, this is way too much, I left it so it would die... first, this guy was my legit exchanger and he can assure that I never f*cked him up.

Then, I came to him, telling him that a friend I know from some online business is going to make a trade as he owe me some money he want to pay it back for me, so I asked him if he can do it.

He told me that he can gladly do it if it's just me who do the deal here on HF, for that, I decided to trust the guy who came to me in help, and did the deal for him, when he screwed both of us, as I gave my word to himyfamily to pay him back when it's possible as I feel embarrassed.

That story can be verified by himyfamily, and I believe I can do nothing but make sure that I keep my word on that and pay him back oneday, as in total it was my mistake trusting someone, I knew for months to reveal a lot about his truth and the reality of him, my apologies to himyfamily.

Well thing is simple.

1) Who got my Lr fund ?

You got my LR fund.

2) How to solve the problem?

You said you will pay me back one day. Yes, sure, why don't you just refund/resend me the LR when I ask you? (over month ago).

That is all you have to said after over 1 months? LOL.

himyfamily - February 6, 2011, 9:07 am

LOL this is what you get. Words worth $80 LR.

LOL.

As usual, this just shows how bad HF is as a community. The staff has no obligation to get your money back, but they should have the obligation to ban a scammer. I remember him trying to exchange his LR for my PP.
