I sent him 30$ AP in return for 25$ LR. He took my AP and never sent the LR. He claims he did but he never updated me with any confirmation that he did. Complete scammer and crybaby manipulator.

Proof that I sent payment.

Proof that he never did. He has never even verified which account he sent payment to. And according to him. After I sent him payment, he claimed that he sent payment from his "cousin's account", when I was specifically only dealing with him. When asked for the account he sent payment to, he only said that his cousin was off line and never got back to me again after that. I said I would wait to see what happened with his cousin and closed the scam report he opened on me when I had in fact sent him payment to begin with.

The 25$ I received came from ExchangeZone. Not Pinz.

Do you have any other proof that is him?

Please also provide a link to his profile.

Alright, do you think that you could also use spoilers in the original post, and add the profile link there.

Add screenshots of any conversations dealing with the transaction.

What a joke of a scam report. I paid the money to his LR. I am pretty sure he has a couple as he had a .txt of 2 accounts. He told me to pay to the top one. Yes i am really going to scam O.o. Fail scam report.
