Thread: 4 Lucky People to get L33T.

Rainbow Dash - January 7, 2011, 9:21 am

In about one week, I'm gaining around £650 into my bank account which I'm pretty happy about. Part of this money is going to be spent towards the community of HF. I am going to be buying 4 people L33T when my money comes through. Because of possible issues that can and will always go wrong with banks, I'm going to set the deadline for entry on the 15th January.

After much thought of what to do, I've decided to put it down to the good ol' random number generator.

These are the requirements to enter:

MUST HAVE OVER 150 POSTS AND MUST HAVE BEEN ON HACK FORUMS FOR OVER ONE MONTH.

Also give me a good reason for why you should be made a L33T. (This is for fun)

Leave ONE number between 1 and 200.

N.B:

DEADLINE: 15/1/11 (UK) 1/15/11 (US)

4 People will be chosen at random by the number generator. I will keep going until I hit a number that someone has given until I have hit 4 numbers. Then the contest is over. No exceptions. After the numbers have been chosen, please give me 24 hours to complete the transactions as sometimes my bank can be a bitch with numerous transactions at once.

GOOD LUCK TO ALL OF YOU!

EDIT: Now I am Ub3r, I can upgrade L33ts to Ub3r, I believe so the contest can go on usually. No Paypal. Regards, Dash.

EDIT: The results will be posted on a new thread and I will of course, PM the winners to give them my personal congratulations.

I would like the number 32 and I think that I should be l33t so that I have more room for PM graphic requests as I am constantly having to delete messages.

Pittsburgh_Steelers - January 7, 2011, 9:26 am

TheIndex - January 7, 2011, 9:27 am

I want to be a L33t because most people are only giving out programs and passwords to programs for L33t/Ub3r only and I wish to gain these programs so I can learn better have the latest programs.

I chosse number 176.

JUAN9087™ - January 7, 2011, 9:28 am

If you are l33t you can aply for the money?

Suomi105 - January 7, 2011, 9:32 am

I want l33t just because I do cool sigs and I give them for free to people. Also I just want it because I like you :DD and I don't have enough money yet on PayPal and won't get much soon.

I've been member while and I have bit less than 50 +rep.

Thanks for keeping this contest and I take number ... 69 of course. I hope I win and good luck people!

E: Look at these people. In OP you say that you must have been at least month and must have over 150 post. And I see people joined December and people with less than 50 posts.

PEOPLE, LEARN TO READ!!!

xSkilLedx - January 7, 2011, 9:48 am

I pick number 21. I'd like to nominate myself for the l33t membership. I'm the kind of member that like helping out others with almost anything. I believed that I'm a high quality poster. I'm sure you may be wondering why I can't buy it myself. It's because I'm broke. I'm completely serious. That's all. I hope to be picked. Good luck to all the other contestants. Thank you a lot for offering such service. I wish you a happy new year (2011).

Warrior?? - January 7, 2011, 9:49 am

I would like to win the money to upgrade myself to ub3r.

I can't rightfully say I deserve this more than everybody else that will post here because obviously there are more reputable people on this site that will be looking for an upgrade. I would however like to say that I am trying to a HQ member and I am trying to find more ways to give back to this community myself.

My number is 167

Ali raza - January 7, 2011, 9:54 am

I Choose Number 6 ;

I deserve this because I m Helpful On This Forum, I giveaways That i have, I want to be share All Things like Honest, Sorry for my Bad English

j4x0r - January 7, 2011, 9:58 am

Hey, I have over 530 posts, 2 rep and have been a part of HF of almost 8 months.

I think I deserve l33t because I have done lots of things for the members of HF, including making free signature to EVERYONE who requests one. I have given over 13 100% unlimited lifetime hosting accounts to members and the only neg rep I have are from 4 kids who rep raped me for flaming a thread. I also do lots of contests and plan do do some give aways in the future.

zyvox - January 7, 2011, 9:58 am 12.

Your rep is always good luck ?

That rep won't stay the same for a long time I guess.

Hmm I actually don't have a good reason for being l33t, just that I want to since I've been on this forum a while now and Im still active :)

And I don't have paypal so I can't buy it myself... :/(So I would get so happy for l33t D:

Also, as someone stated over; ub3rs/l33ts are in some cases the only ones who gets like the source codes for some projects etc in coding, which can help me alot in evolving my knowledge.

Good luck. ?

Btw. to upgrade someone to ub3r they have to get approved - and if you send them money they might use it for something else so I don't know. You decide. A lot of users doesn't get approved, so then what should they do? Keep the money, of course - and they were meant to be bought ub3r with. I suggest then, that you create a rule that every l33t that enters needs to be approved to ub3r with a screenshot (of the whole screen to avoid faking) with the approvement of Omniscient.

Ok after all this talking I'd like to say good luck.

The guy before you picked 13 so pick another number. Also, you might want some more posts before applying for the contest. :)

This contest is going to be really fun to do! I'm going to lose about £65 to do it, but it's all going into the community. I can't wait until the 15th as much as you guys can't.

Lets see how many people we can get entering. ?

I was going to do 5 BUT there is a friend who I want to give L33t to, so I took it down to 4. Sorry for that, but I did promise him I'd get him it. :)

i want number 146 i deserve to become l33t cause i always giving away porn accounts in contests etc...and i have helped ppl in this forum!

zyvox - January 7, 2011, 1:20 pm

I still think it's a long period until the 15th.

What shall I do meanwhile?

I mean, I have nothing to do except for schoo, eat, sleep, cod, wow, just cause 2, assassins creed, browsing hf, browsing wss, browsing google, browsing newspaper, going to some friend, playing with some friend, sleepover at some friends house (going do that saturday till sunday D:), talk with you, making an application in vb, and about 409632 others things to do.

Hmm. Ok seeing it from that side of the case, I got much to do. Now the problem is WHAT of it to do.

Easy.

Cod.

In almost 10 days?

I don't think so.

What I'm trying to say is that I simply can't wait like you. Lol.

Do you end the contest if all numbers gets picked? ?

Rainbow Dash - January 7, 2011, 1:24 pm

If all numbers get picked and it's say, the 13th, everyone will have to wait until I get my money. It's not coming in 'till next week so I'm running the contest in the meantime. All I've got to do in that time is COD, WoW, RS, Halo, HF, Youtube, Books, Revision, Steam, RvB and hope that the bank gets the bloody thing right! :D

And I made my sig myself. I don't want a fancy one. I just want one with Rainbow dash on it. ;)

zyvox - January 7, 2011, 1:28 pm

Hmm

Is dat pokemon? D:

Neways, I like fancy sigs. It's facinating to look at.

But that sig+avatar matches your name... Maybe because it's the name of the creature. Lol. Idk.

Mucius Scaevola - January 7, 2011, 3:55 pm

May I have the number 189 please?

I have multiple reasons I want l33t. I am a member for a really long time now and I always do my best to post quality. The whole period I was on Hackforums I never flamed someone or offended someone in any form. I am not a racist and I do not make hate/flame threads. I am here to help people, to learn and to have fun. I am for example learning delphi and I am not the average script kiddie but I try to make my own code and I ask people things in the delphi section, but I try to do as much as I can for the delphi section. The delphi section is just an example. If I see a thread where someone asks for help I check it and try to find a solution for the problem, if I can't find a solution I don't make a useless post to get my post count up. I always try to use good grammar and act like an adult. My main language is not English so you might notice it isn't perfect English. I also try to bring some fun in the forum by posting in the lounge, however I can only post 20 posts max in 24 hours. I really want to give more join in the lounge but just can't because of the restrictions. I also am in the computer section just to help other people. Most problems I encounter are problems I can solve on my own. Because I am interested in computer stuff I visit the computer section to help and gain more knowledge. I try to contribute as much as possible, if I get picked to be l33t I am planning to do a mass giveaway. Maybe in pr0n or uploading websites such as # or something. I also will release a project I am making in delphi for everyone. The project is for bangbros. The idea behind is to login from the app to bangbros with a account and password integrated in the application with the same proxy. Because of the proxy you'll get only logins from the ip of the proxy so the account won't be banned. I also want l33t because I can do something extra back to people who help me by giving them rep. If you give you you would be the first that receives +rep from me. I think I am a contribution to the forum and I am no leecher. All the small things help I think. Such as clicking adf.ly links or signing up as referral instead of non referral. I hope all those things will make you feel I deserved the l33t.

Thanks in advance

Number:44

Reasons:

Why should i be upgraded?

Here is a small sample of what i could do with l33t:Creating updated tutorials would become much more viable due to the fact i would be able to edit my posts ViA a TiMeWaRp

Starting up a free signiture creation thread would also become much easier as i would be able to update the OP with peoples signitures instead of PM'ing people as i would have to do now(I have got plans to do this,but cant at the moment for that reason)

I would be able to post links to files and sites for various reasons(Cracked Releases,things ive coded/found etc etc) without being attacked for advertising,trying to infect other HF members or whatever bullshit some noob will be able to concoct within 5 minutes of a thread being created.

Finally being able to give +Rep to people that really deserve it such as the writers of incredibly useful tutorials,the free-installers or even just the crypters who get servers FUD.

What have i done to deserve it?:Released quite a few of my own private Source Scripts(Not shitty ones,autobuilds and lightsabers amongst them)

I am a fairly High quality poster and aim to keep all of my posts at this standard.

I released an MCCheat forum for free and created said forum.

I have been here for quite a while and know my way around :P(Since 03-18-2010, 04:07 PM Exactly).

I may not have the highest post count however that is due to the fact i only post where i feel my input is neccersery and justified unlike some of the idiots who spam the lounge.

I recently posted a simple Tutorial for the Iexpress binding method.

I plan to post quite a few more tuts and to remain an active member.

Risheng - January 9, 2011, 8:33 am

Number 25 (oyeah :D)

I'm a pretty new member on HF but I try to help people as much as I can. D:

Well, I just want l33t to edit my thread.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=929267>

I can't edit it any more, I have to upgrade and as I can't edit it any more, I can't switch to online/offline. So people keep PM'ing me as they think the service is online. >.<
When I sleep/am away, I can't change the service statut, that actually sucks. =/

I'm also about to release a tool : <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=932131>
And I made a tool for newbies : <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=936247>

And as I have some Minecraft premium accounts, I give them to helpful HF members.

So yeah, that's it. :)

Btw, I don't think I "deserve" the upgrade, actually the person who think that he "deserve" an upgrade then he doesn't deserve it. A helpful person actually does not care about his statut, he's only here to help. To be honest, my principal reason to be 1337 is to update my thread to keep helping newbies.

ALL OF THAT SHIT TO MAKE YOU LOVE ME, SO DO ITT. :D

Not all numbers are taken. Only about 63 of them.

Also, 3 very good HQ applications. Shame this is based on luck and not quality of posting.

zyvox - January 9, 2011, 8:43 am

^If it was about the quality I guess I also would take some time to state all my reasons of being l33t, my good threads, what I have done and so on. But sine it's luck, I only state the most important of it, as there actually is way more.

But holy crap the guy above here used some time in this. Wow.

It's considered unlucky because of certain things to do with the Crusades and the Pope but also from Friday 13th.

Actually, in Sikhism it is considered a lucky number.

For me, though, I like it since it's the number that barely anyone chooses for a lucky number.

Pushing against the crowd. ;)

Hopyfully a card to me too, I've been awaiting 3 posters for about 40 days now soon from amazon.com, and HD PVR a week.

I got a lap yesterday in the mail, gonna get it tomorrow at the post office. But I don't know what is :/ I hope it's the hd pvr <3

I want to be made l33t because any time i try to do something for the community, eg lotto, or crypting or even services first thing is people don't trust which is something annoying. Everyone says get ub3r or l33t and we will do it, or we will do business etc.

Thats why

Great Thread and good luck to everyone :)

Ruyuk - January 10, 2011, 11:41 am

I would like to choose number 50 for this contest.

I think I would deserve ub3r because I have given to this forum a lot and I have helped many users out.

Boing - January 10, 2011, 12:08 pm

Name: Boing7898

Why do you think you deserve L33T: I think I deserve l33t because I've been much active on the forum, I've helped much users without checking if they were upgraded or not and now I think that it's the time to get something back. Much users give things only to upgraded members because so they can get repped. I think this is wrong, because a person gets +rep only when he really deserve it, not when it gives free things. Much users want to get upgraded just to get access to the "VIP zone" (or how it's called..) so they get free stuff and so on. I'd like to get l33t because with it I can reward members that helped me. Some peoples just don't give a shit about non-upgraded users, because they think that we are here just to spam or leech, and they don't think about various help-topics . Just because a member is with 0 rep doesn't mean that he want to leech. Everyone needs to start from the beginning. And yeah, here's why I think I deserve L33T

My number: 37 (13 was already taken D:) (13+37 = l33t =D)

/dev/net/tun - January 10, 2011, 3:05 pm

I choose 140

I have been a member trying to contribute to the forums in a positive way, bringing the occasional laugh.

Savage1101 - January 11, 2011, 2:05 am hey im siavonen and i beleave i deserve to get to be l33t.

well first of all you may think that why? well i attend to help people and provide all help that i can. i'm not source of information but i know about lots of things. as you can see i have many threads about having problems and needing help =P but i have also given out some things that i have for example some money making sites, anti-virus licenses and few days ago i started premium account sharing thread where i share premium accounts only with l33t and Ub3r accounts. You may think that i share only with l33t and Ub3r so i would get Rep, well you are wrong cuz im not intrested in rep what im intrested in is that i help people, so the reason is that most of non ub3r or l33t just change the passes or leech them. anyhow im nice personal and easy to communicate with. i dont know is this all text naccessarry but w/e =P and id like to take number 205
