Hello there people! I thought that I could make a thread with all your anime reviews. You can write what you think about it, what the anime is about, how long the anime is, include some pictures and things like that. You can rate it aswell.

I thought that I could add some rules aswell, since I want to prevent unnecessary posts. Feel free to discuss any anime here aswell.

RulesDon't flame other people. If anyone has said anything to offend you, please report him/her instead.

Keep your posts on topic.

Only write in english and try to use good grammar.

Well, I guess that I can start.

Name: Death Note.

Episodes: 37.

Genre: I don't really know, lol.

Story.

The story is about a person named Yagami Light, he's a really calm and smart person. School bores him and he is pretty bored generally. Ryuk, a Death God, drops a Death Note on the ground. The Death Note is a notebook that has the power of killing people, when you write a name in the notebook and think of him/her the person will die. Yagami Light is the one that picks it up and with that Death Note he will try to fight criminality to make a better world. Everything goes well until a really smart detective called L shows up and makes it hard for Yagami Light. Those two will now fight eachother for their own justice.

What do I think about it?

I think that it's a really good anime and any person that likes anime, psychology and/or social engineering should watch it. I can't really see any minus in this anime.

Rating.

I give it 10/10 because of it's brilliance and it's story.

Name: Black Lagoon

Episodes: 12 in 1 Season, 12 in the 2nd season, but I just consider it Black Lagoon with 24 Episodes

Genre: Action

Story.

Okajima Rokuro is a Japanese businessman in a town full of Japanese businessmen. His normal day consists of social drinking with clients and being kicked around by his bosses. He finally gets a break though, as he's sent by his company to the tropical seas of Eastern China to deliver a disc, only his boat gets hijacked by a band of mercenaries that were hired to steal it. "Rock" (as he is newly dubbed by his captors) catches the interest of the only female merc "Revy" as she thinks he's worth a ransom, taking him hostage. However, the disc turns out to be more trouble than its worth, and complicates things both for Rock, and the mercenaries known as Black Lagoon.

What do I think about it?

I think its superb how the plot developed, and what the anime was about, since I am very into action/comedy animes, and this IMO gave me the perfect balance between insane ill ass action and funny moments. =)

Rating.

10/10 Because the plot to me is amazing along with the artwork.
